EAST COAST

East Coast's longevity speaks for itself. Now entering it's forth decade, the band stands alone for it's professionalism, ability to get everyone's feet moving and passion for musical excellence. Recently reunited with their American Idol Big Mike Lynche (#4 Idol Season Nine), East Coast Band is poised to thrill yet another generation of fans.

During the late 70's, 80's & 90's, East Coast developed it's reputation as a high energy party band, building a loyal following at night clubs and colleges throughout the tri-state area—from the Hampton's to Hunter Mountain. With an incredibly diverse "can't miss" repertoire and a sophisticated yet relaxed approach, East Coast became a sure fire choice for private affairs, weddings and corporate engagements. High profile events have allowed the band to perform for and with many celebrities from the entertainment, sports and political worlds: Jon Bon Jovi, Billy Joel, Vanessa Williams, John Belushi, LL Cool J, Russell Simmons, Ralph Lauren, Tommy Hilfiger, Kenneth Cole, Matt Lauer, Jerry Seinfeld, Martha Stewart, Mookie Wilson, Ron Guidry, Steve Carlton, Al Leiter, Michael Kaye, Robert Kraft, Dikembe Mutombo, Sean Hannity, Scott Shannon, Bill O'Reilly, Geraldo Rivera, Rudy Giuliani, Mike Huckabee, Michael Bloomberg, Mario Cuomo, George Pataki and Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg to name but a few. Some recent compliments we have received:

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you...for recommending East Coast Band!!!! Christopher and I went to see them play last night. WOW! After only three songs, Christopher handed Lynda a note (on a napkin) saying "July 28...Roosevelt Hotel...Please!?!?" Within 30 minutes, we had booked them. We planned on leaving after we booked them, but they were so fabulous that we stayed until 3am. I'm so excited to have them play at our wedding, and I owe it all to you. Thanks again! Talk to you soon, Kimberly

Paul, I want to thank you and the band for the best evening possible. Casey and Brian (the bride and groom) said it was the best wedding reception that they ever attended (and they went to 10 weddings THIS summer!) Every single person that thanked me for a wonderful time commented that the Band was the best band they have ever heard. Some people mentioned the food, some the flowers, etc...but everyone RAVED about the music!! It simply MADE the evening perfect. I hope to hear you play again soon. I have really become an East Coast "groupie". Barbra Podesta (Mother of the Bride)

Paul - I want you to know how much we appreciated the OVER-THE-TOP effort you guys put in for us. Not even just from the AWESOME music standpoint, but the treacherous drive in!!!!! It's is impressive when you can say "not even a state-of-emergency" will keep us away!! If you EVER need a reference, we would be so happy to provide one and trust me... it would be a RAVE review. Craig isn't kidding when he said that our friends still talk about you guys and how great our band was! danah@mbooth.com

Thank you for making our wedding day fantastic! The Dixieland jazz was a big hit, all of our guests were very impressed (even the Southerners)! We received so many compliments, and everyone had a great time. Even though the weather was terrible, you had all of our guests dancing so much that they forgot about the rain. Your song selection was fabulous, we really couldn't have asked for more! Thanks again, Debra and Brian Courville June 24, 2006

EAST COAST MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT F.A.Q.

What makes EAST COAST unique?

- EAST COAST plays music that will make each affair unique and memorable, and includes great songs that are not your typical wedding band fare. We love to entertain.
- EAST COAST is a band that has regular public performances. We welcome clients to meet and get to know the individual performers. This leads to level of confidence that makes for a stress free event when the big day arrives.
- EAST COAST makes every effort to personalize each event. From the very beginning you deal directly with the people who will actually be performing. We want every client to be so ecstatic about our performance that they become our biggest supporters and best advertising.
- EAST COAST combines input from our clients with our own experience and expertise to yield a party that's sophisticated, elegant and high energy.
- EAST COAST is proud to be as much a family as a business. The band has been in existence for over twenty five years and has performed at well over 1000 weddings and corporate events as well as 3000 club, concert, school and church functions.

What music do you do best?

Dance music from all genres! What defines EAST COAST is the band's ability to play an eclectic repertoire with stylistic accuracy. On any given day we may play songs from George Gershwin, John Coltrane, Bob Marley, The Cure, Journey, Marvin Gaye, Dave Mathews, Frank Sinatra, Depeche Mode, The Drifters, Kanye West and Earth, Wind & Fire all in one set and still make it all work. We take great pride in not being easily categorized. Please check our song list.

What types of occasions do you normally play?

We like variety and believe that it keeps our music fresh and energetic. For over twenty years East Coast has logged thousands of performances throughout the tri-state area and beyond. These performances have included corporate parties, country club functions, charitable fund raisers, dinner dances, nightclubs and as an opening act for major recording artists. Couples have been so confident in the band's abilities that they have enthusiastically arranged for East Coast to perform at upscale weddings held at the Four Seasons (Boston), the Chevy Chase Club (outside Washington, D.C)., the Plaza and Hotel Pierre (N.Y.C) and at other interesting locations like New York's Grand Central Station. East Coast also has the unique track record of only playing weddings where the bride and groom remain married forever!....

Why hire a band?

A band brings a level of sophistication, elegance and entertainment value that is not possible with a D.J. There is something magical about a live performance and hearing a talented singer bring real meaning to a lyric. EAST COAST has personality and keeps the dance floor packed. The band members are enjoyable to watch, treat guests with respect and play at just the right volume. For those who feel they just need to hear certain songs performed by the original artist, we can also offer a band/DJ combo at minimal additional cost. This may also be of interest for those with venue that allows for a "club" themed after party. We can also offer enhanced lighting packages. Judicious use of lighting can make any venue and stage area look stunning.

What size ensemble will be best for my affair? Wouldn't nine pieces be too loud?

The number of musicians is really a matter of taste, space and budget. Except in the most extreme environments, the number of musicians should not really affect volume. EAST COAST'S core group is eight musicians (bass, guitar, drums, keyboard/trombone, sax, trumpet male vocalist, female vocalist) that have been performing together for years. Everything in our repertoire is possible at this size, and some songs are even more enhanced with additional horns or vocalists. We have a large library of songs arranged for our four piece horn section that are well rehearsed and stylistically accurate.

Are you willing to learn special songs I want played? I have certain songs that I don't want played...is that okay?

If by chance we don't know a wedding song or dedication, we have no problem adding it to our repertoire if we are given adequate notice. We usually ask that you allow us 30 days to properly prepare. Many clients use our song list to highlight favorites and more importantly point out songs they do not want to hear.

Do you play ethnic music?

Absolutely, EAST COAST helps clients celebrate their heritage by playing horas, Irish waltzes, polkas, tarantellas, and other traditional songs. Please consult our song list for suggestions.

Does the band take breaks?

Our experience enables us to coordinate with the banquet staff to keep the party moving and break times to a minimum. Our major goal is to make sure the party maintains momentum and there are no situations where the guests are idly waiting for something to happen. Food service determines much of the flow of any banquet, so make sure you convey to your caterer your desire to have the band be allowed as much time for dancing as possible. You will certainly want to give your guests a chance to catch their breath and the musicians a chance to freshen up. EAST COAST has the capability to play pre-recorded dinner music and often the client may wish to provide some of this interlude material on CD or IPOD. Alternatively, the band may divide into smaller units to provide background music, perhaps a few vocal standards or small group jazz. Please understand that the band relishes the opportunity to impress your guests, not have them say, "Gee, they were great but they took too many breaks."

Will music be provided for the cocktail hour? Ceremony?

One or more band members usually perform at the cocktail hour and we like to feature our jazz trio (upright bass, sax, and guitar). We can also provide classical ensembles, Caribbean music or strolling violins. East Coast also regularly provides music for wedding ceremonies.

Will the band dress appropriately?

The band dresses formally unless otherwise instructed.

Are you insured?

Absolutely. Proof of insurance and workers compensation can be emailed or faxed to catering establishments as required.

Are there any hidden additional fees?

No! Contrary to some large office practice, the price you are quoted is the price you pay. Unless otherwise specified, all insurance, production costs, crew and standard lighting are included. Please keep this in mind when comparison shopping.

What can I do to assist the band in living up to my expectations?

Don't be afraid to ask questions and speak your mind! This is your event and we're sure that you have a good picture in your mind of how you would like things to go. With your ideas and our talent and experience, you can be sure that yours will be an event to remember!

EAST COAST

At EAST COAST Music and Entertainment we are proud to:

REALIZE THAT "BLACK TIE" AND "ELEGANT" DO NOT MEAN "LIFELESS" AND "BORING"

For over 20 years East Coast has taken an approach that is sophisticated yet high energy. Be it "upscale and refined" for Mayor Giuliani at the Plaza or "rock the house" at the Boardy Barn in the Hamptons, we have excelled at matching our musical skills to any type of event. We run parties that are dignified, energetic and most importantly—fun!

CREATE A PARTY ATMOSPHERE

The entertainer's job is to read the crowd, control the tempo of the affair and play the songs that will get everyone involved. We believe this can be done in a classy, low-key way. There is no need to have an MC that is constantly screaming over the microphone in an attempt to get people on the dance floor.

PLAY DIFFERENT MUSICAL STYLES WITH CONVICTION

Most parties require that many styles be covered during the course of the event. A diverse repertoire that is stylistically accurate is our trademark. We also to be unpredictable and to make each event unique by including great songs that are not your "typical wedding band" fare.

PLAY ALL THE NOTES

On the job and in our promotional material we make it sound "right" without resorting to electronic gimmickry. We are talented, well rehearsed and do not supplement our sound with pre-recorded tracks. This allows us to have an energy and spontaneity that is only possible in a truly LIVE performance.

BE HONEST - NEVER PRESSURE

We strive above all to be honest and up front in all our business practices. We want our clients to become our biggest supporters and best advertising.

MAKE FRIENDS

Photographers and videographers attend hundreds of weddings and parties each year. Ask them who their favorite bands are and you'll be amazed how often East Coast is at the top of the list!
